| Give and explain your point of view (orally first, then in writing). | E1-11 | Part 1
Have answered each question. Have given each time at least one reason to justify your answer. |
| Explain a fact in everyday life, a picture, a simple message heard or read. | E1-21 | Part 2
Have described the survey and explained how it went, how long it lasted, what it was for, etc. |
| Illustrate your ideas using examples from your own life and that of other people. | E1-12 | Part 3
Have chosen 1 of the two possibilities. Have given at least 2 arguments and at least 2 examples to justify your choice. |
| Recognise the arguments in a given message. | E1-31 | Part 4
Have found the 2 arguments and at least 1 example for each. |
| Reformulate someone else’s message (for example to understand it better or to reach an agreement). | E1-23 |
Have reformulated at least 1 example for each of the 2 arguments, comprehensibly and in line with the original message. |
| Answer questions like “What do you think about …? Why?” | E1-42 | Part 5
Have answered the question clearly and have given at least 2 arguments and 2 examples to justify your point of view. |
| Answer questions like: “What are the different opinions that exist about…? Why?” | E1-43 | Part 6
Have ticked the 3 sentences corresponding to the opinion of each of the 3 friends. |
| State your position from a simple message. | E1-41 | Part 7
Have taken into account the opinion and the arguments of one of the 3 friends. This opinion must correspond to the one given in Part 5. Have clearly explained why that opinion was chosen. |
