Set designer

Nathalie: Yes, Madam Aria, I love my work. It's fascinating to work with directors like Jack Clintwood or great stars of the cinema, the theatre, variety or opera, like you Madam Aria! Is it really interesting? Oh yes! There is a lot you have to do yourself to meet the requirements of the director, and to stay within the budget: you have to make a model of the scene. The rest of the work you do as part of the team to make the set, making sure of the colours, the lighting and the sound ...

.../...

It's not an easy job. It's important to be in tune with the director, as well as keeping him within the bounds of what is possible. And if an element of the set doesn't work, it's important to be able to make something else! You have to be good at do-it-yourself! Qualifications? Anything to do with the arts: visual arts or decoration, architecture and also performing arts. And it's also necessary to have good general knowledge! Careful, Madam Aria, don't stand under this chandelier. The work isn't finished yet. You never know what might fall down!

*In a similar line of work, Nathalie could also have been:
interior designer – furnisher of interiors – designer – interior architect – architect – stage designer – landscape designer – furniture salesperson – upholsterer...*
