

100 job descriptions brought to life	ROAD SWEEPER	9.7
		Eval.

Here is the same text but you have to complete it with the right words. The first letter is given, as is the number of letters for each word to be written.

Con Jugate: "Hello there Yannis! How are things? Glad to hear it!"

Look, there's the old lady with her little dog... With her, there's no need to use the l _ _ _ _ _ p _ _ _ _ _ to c _ _ _ _ u _ after her Yorkshire terrier. She always does it herself. And anyway her dog always goes in the g _ _ _ _ _ and not in the middle of the p _ _ _ _ _ . If only more people were like her! Then the p _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ wouldn't take it out on the dogs! Ah, Corkscrew S _ _ _ _ _ . Now that's my favourite! I know so many people there! Not much t _ _ _ _ _ and the residents are careful about the en _ _ _ _ _ . Very little r _ _ _ _ _ , no greasy p _ _ _ _ _ or other l _ _ _ _ _ on the r _ _ _ . Right, I've finished here. I'll just put the s _ _ _ _ _ and b _ _ _ _ _ on the b _ _ _ _ _ and I'm off to Mr Patel's. I'm sure he'll give me a cup of his excellent tea!

100 job descriptions brought to life	ROAD SWEEPER	9.7
		Eval.

Maintenance man and town cleaner

Con Jugate: So, Yannis, it surprises you that I am 'maintenance man and town cleaner', in other words a street sweeper, with a PhD in Philosophy. I did this work to pay my way through university, and I really enjoyed it. So afterwards I had no reason to change, and I like it, and continue to study for myself. You are surprised that I like this job, I can see that. I'm not bothered by the cold, the rain or the sun. All the different weather conditions and all the seasons have their advantages. When it rains nature sends through the air particular scents that one only smells in these circumstances.

.../...

You wouldn't believe what people throw away in the streets and gutters, in bus shelters, on street benches, in green spaces. It's incredible! I sometimes try to imagine what kind of person could possibly leave a shoe on a ticket machine...And then I meet people in the area where I work. We talk about the weather or Schopenhauer, as well as other things. In the end I feel that I'm doing a public service, being useful to the community. And anyway, just because you work with a brush in your hand does not mean that you want less than you neighbour. I know you agree with me there.

*

If he had wanted, Con Jugate could have been a teacher of philosophy or an astronomer... but in a similar line of work to what he does now, he could also have been: an industrial cleaner - refuse manager for the town council - parks and cemeteries manager - health and hygiene technician - a window cleaner - bin man - refuse lorry driver - sewage maintenance man - council notice deliveryman - graffiti remover...

A few words relating to a road sweeper's work:

Here is a text using a lot of words from the list. Read it carefully, as you will have to use the same words afterwards.

Avenue	Barrow	Bin bags
Boulevard	Brush	Clean up
Clearing	Doorstep	Environment
Gutter	Household waste	Litter
Litter picker	Paper	Pavement
Pedestrians	Road	Rubbish
Shovel	Square	Street
Tarmac	Traffic	Water hydrant

Con Jugate: "Hello there Yannis! How are things? Glad to hear it!"

Look, there's the old lady with her little dog... With her, there's no need to use the litter picker to clean up after her Yorkshire terrier. She always does it herself. And anyway her dog always goes in the gutter and not in the middle of the pavement. If only more people were like her! Then the pedestrians wouldn't take it out on the dogs! Ah, Corkscrew Street... Now that's my favourite! I know so many people there! Not much traffic and the residents are careful about the environment. Very little rubbish, no greasy papers or other litter on the road. Right, I've finished here. I'll just put the shovel and brushes on the barrow and I'm off to Mr Patel's. I'm sure he'll give me a cup of his excellent tea!