Maintenance man

Earnest: They call me Jack Clintwood's handyman. And it's true! I'm the maintenance man who looks after the place. I fix, I mend, I make sure that everything works, I find what they've lost and I even replace the props woman sometimes! I can do welding and painting, electricity, plumbing, you name it!

I also move the sets, I put away all the equipment, I help them move and remove, and I spare no effort. Whenever something unexpected comes up, I'm there. And it often happens when shooting a film! I always have to keep my cool. That's right! Sorry, what? Musidora's snakes did you say? Ah!!! They're the only things I can't stand!
